

The image is a graphic design for Solent University Southampton. It features a large black circle in the upper left containing the university's name in white, sans-serif capital letters. The text is arranged in three lines: 'SOLENT', 'UNIVERSITY', and 'SOUTHAMPTON', with a thin horizontal line separating 'UNIVERSITY' and 'SOUTHAMPTON'. The background is white and decorated with several halftone patterns of dots of varying sizes and densities, some forming circular shapes. At the bottom, there is a line-art illustration of a building complex. The building has a central tall, narrow tower with a pointed top, flanked by lower, more complex structures with multiple levels and windows. In the foreground, there are stylized, wavy lines representing water or a landscape. The overall design is modern and minimalist.
