Limitations: Even artwork supplied and correctly drawn may have to be altered to meet the limitations of the printing process. Alterations made will not be of a literal or content nature, but may involve spacing and registration adjustments.
Pantone Colours: Due to the variety of materials and production processes we cannot guarantee a full Pantone match.

This is because no two materials take the ink in the same way and as such slight variations may occur from product types to product types eg. paper and ceramic and silk screen and digital. We will however, endeavour to match Pantones as closely as is technically possible.

The above proof shows your artwork in the position it would be printed on the product and to the scale in relation to the product. Due to the nature of the material of the product and because the printing is often a hand applied process some minor movement of the image from product to product is to be expected.

THIS IS YOUR FINAL PRINT READY ARTWORK PLEASE CHECK IN DETAIL.
