From Manchester take M602 onto M60 then M66 signed Bury.

Then follow signs for Blackburn and Burnley onto the M65 heading for Burnley.

At Rawtenstall again follow the Burnley signs and then take the second exit at the McDonalds roundabout onto the Accrington Bypass A56(T).

Follow this to the roundabout at Junction 8 of M65, Go straight through this under the motorway, and follow the A6068 signed for Clitheroe.

At the first set of traffic lights go straight through and up a small hill onto a second set of lights, go straight through and follow road signposted for Fence for approx 3 miles.

From the Fence by pass take the road signed Spen Brook, Fence and Barley picnic area, then take second left, signposted Noggarth Road, follow this road to the top, bearing right and then take the next turn on the left, Heights Lane, signed Spen Brook and Newchurch,

Go up and down the hill until you see a demolished mill site on the left. Opposite the mill, turn right into Osborne Terrace, follow this to the end onto the unmade track and then tarmac lane until you come to a cattle grid and a white house on the right. Follow the track to the left round the house and carry on for approx 500 yards.

Spen Barn Farm is the first building on the right.

NOTE: only small van access only
